

Foreign Policy Association
International Business
Forum
Membership Benefits

President's Circle - $30,000

Participation in the International Business Forum dinner series with corporate and political leaders.

The International Business Forum dinner series provides the opportunity to participate in a series of small dinners with leading figures who have most recently included Dr. David Vasella, Chairman and CEO, Novartis International and Christopher Cox, Chairman, Securities and Exchange Commission.

Participation in the World Leadership Forum that brings together heads of state and global business leaders in an annual conference.

Invitations to select company executives to attend the Foreign Policy Association's exclusive Fellow's meetings with business and political leaders.

Special invitations to select company executives to attend Association's Annual and Financial Services dinners.

Participation by member company in more than forty events each year.

Multiple subscriptions to Association's literature on business and global affairs.

Acknowledgement in Association's literature and on Association's website.

Executive Level - $15,000

Participation in the International Business Forum dinner series with corporate and political leaders.

The International Business Forum dinner series provides the opportunity to participate in a series of small dinners with leading figures who have most recently included Dr. David Vasella, Chairman and CEO, Novartis International and Christopher Cox, Chairman, Securities and Exchange Commission.

Participation in the World Leadership Forum that brings together heads of state and global business leaders in an annual conference.

Participation by member company in more than forty events each year.

Multiple subscriptions to Association's literature on business and global affairs.

Acknowledgement in Association's literature.